Experience

Volunteer

April 2014 :

Akirachix Association

Offered Assistance in the financial department in book keeping, handling of petty cash, reconciling accounts.

Skills

The need to be accurate and systematic.

The value of keeping records and being keen especially when dealing with numbers

April 2010 – Present:

COYREP ( Consolata Youth Rehabilitation Group) at Deepsea Educational Project)

Offering Tuition Services to Children from the Slum in order to keep them from other undesirable social activities , during the time which they are in school holiday.

The children are usually engaged in activities such as straight talk, which is a program meant to create awareness on issues affecting them especially during the puberty stage, talent search through art, music, dance and games such as football.

Walking from house to house together with the Social Worker to find out about the condition of the aged, the number of needy children in the area which includes orphans, sick children as well as making a follow up of abused children.

Handling defilement cases which are so rampant in the area as well as encouraging children and women to come and speak out in case of rape and/defilement.

Engaging the community in cleaning the environment at least twice when the children are on holidays so as to promote unity.

Offering study tips to candidates both the Primary and the High school .

January 2013-September 2013:

Afrikasi Nursery School

ECDE Teacher, Peer counselor , Assistant Social Worker

Worked as a full time teacher in volunteer ship . Working with children as a teacher made me more responsible and patient.

While working with young adults(teenagers) you learn how to look at things in their own perspective so as to understand them and this will help you in assisting them.

In doing social work I learned how to co-exist with people and their different personality, I appreciated the value of treating people as individuals and not always as a group.
